“Now also when I am old and grayheaded, O God, forsake me not; until I have shewed thy strength unto this generation, and thy power unto every one that is to come.” Psalm 71:18

Greetings from the remote Village of Elephant Stable in the Southeastern province of Svay Rieng, Cambodia. Our fifth Bible School in our new series is now completed with 31 students completing all of their exams and memory verses. We had a great exam day and the young people did a great job on both their written exams and memory verses as well as their singing. Following the exam, Pastor Reap invited me to preach to 40 adults and that was a great opportunity to clarify the gospel to the older generation. Several of the men present were officials in the local Village and they listened carefully to the Gospel. I’ll be 67 years old shortly so that garners some respect in their eyes since they have seen me working in their Village and in the Church year after year.

The seventy souls of this remote Elephant Stable Village Church thank you all for your love, prayers and gifts that we may keep their Bible School going and growing for another year.
